Sergio Bravo thinks he's a race car driver.

Tricycle races are a highlight of a pep rally.

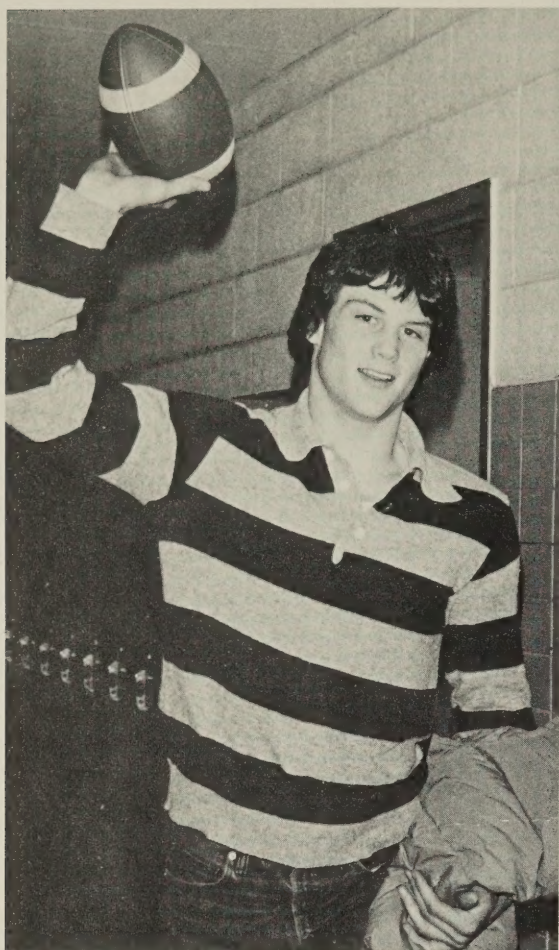

Approaching . . .

As we enter high school,
We reach the Crossroads of our lives.
We realize we are no longer children,
but are not quite adults.
We grow and mature,
but still retain our youthfulness.

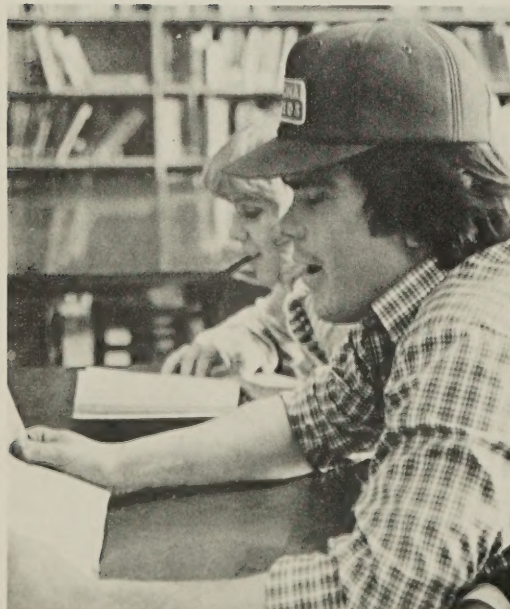

"The Boys Are Back in Town!"

HOME OF T

High school is full of crossroads.
We must judge as well as serve as jury.
Each day we continue to become involved
Through these involvements we enjoy our surroundings.
With the help and guidance of teachers
Our experiences always turn out great.

THE JAGUARS

Coach Ake Advises Donny Entsminger on the next play.

. . . Entering A New . . .

Many times the meeting of two worlds
Comes when we least expect it.
It starts with consultations.
At times it means fighting for what we believe.
Yet in other situations it means relinquishing things.
And it might even require nothing but observations.

Jane Scott watches as the Jags approach the ten yardline.

Rocky Basham punts the ball away as two Langley players rush him.

Our friendships always lead to surprises. We often change our life style. The good times we experience begin to pave new and different paths. Each new path helps us to learn who we are and what to make of ourselves.

. . . CROSSROADS

Once in high school,
we become individuals through creativity.
Through masks, floats, and pottery,
we express ourselves.
Hard work and persistence always seem to pay off,
as we display our work.

STUDENT LIFE

Homecoming Halftime

Floats provide halftime entertainment.

Showing hope of a first victory of the season at the homecoming game, the Jaguars led 7-0 at halftime. During this period the classes and clubs presented their floats. Many hard hours of work went into preparing these beautiful and elaborate creations. Since the game was held so early in the year, this proved to be even more difficult than in the past.

This dedication paid off for the sophomore class and the band. After gaining a year's experience the class of '80 won its first float competition. The Pony Express with its slogan "Round 'Em Up and Ship 'Em Out" fit in nicely with the theme of "Our Western Heritage." The band continued in its winning tradition with a covered wagon and the words "Say

Your Prairies, Langley"

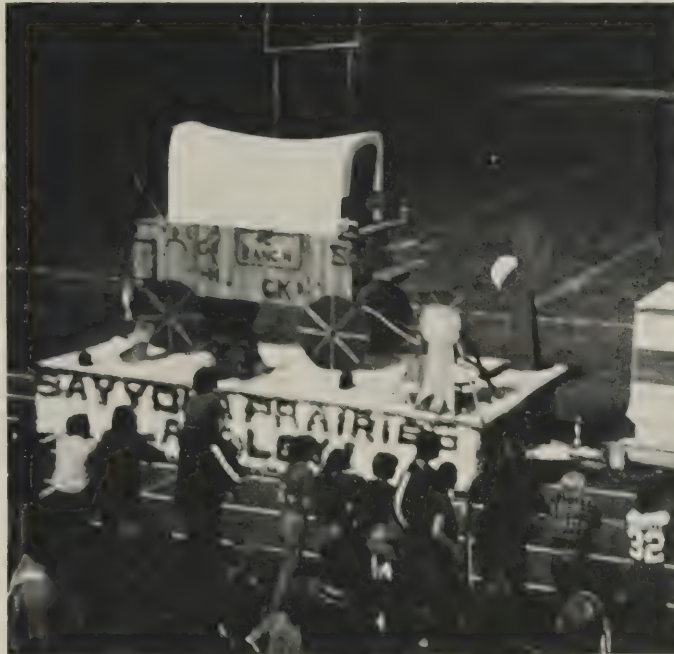

After the floats were shown, the homecoming court came through the arches created by the Swiss flags. As each member and her escort approached the crowd, the tension mounted in anticipation of the naming of the queen. The crowd cheered as the loud speaker announced Barbara Stryker as maid-of-honor and finally Mary Jones as the queen.

As the festivities drew to a close the Jaguars returned to the field for the second half of the game. The second half proved to be just as good as the first as the team went on to win 14-7. The game and the halftime proceedings were a fitting prelude to the "Fancy Colors" formal dance the following night.

The 1977-1978 Homecoming dance topped off a successful weekend. After the victory over Langley on Friday night, September 30, Spirits were high. The senior class worked hard to make the dance enjoyable for everyone who attended. "Fancy Colours" provided high quality music for the dance. The Homecoming weekend provided the year with a road to new bright new beginnings.

Again this year the success of the varsity football team brought on an increase in spirit. The reactions of the crowds at pep rallies showed this.

The pep Rallies took a lot of thought on the part of the cheerleaders. In the end, they came up with some very unique ideas from the traditional competition cheers to tricycle races.

The most enjoyable pep rally was the first, however. The four class presidents were placed in front of their class. Soon four pools filled with shaving cream and balloons were brought out. The class presidents were held over them. Students were then informed that the class with the loudest roar would have a shaving creamed president. In the end all the presidents were rather messy with Scott Cox getting the worst end of the deal. As it turned out, Scott had been thrown in his pool face first. After all was through, it seemed that FCHS is a loud and rowdy school.

"The Winning Band"

On October 22, Weber Stadium was packed with four thousand spectators. They came to watch eleven of the nation's top bands compete in the first annual Falls Church Tournament of Marching Bands.

Hosting the show and not competing was the Jaguar Band with an impressive and precise performance. First in competition were three local bands — Madison, Jefferson, and T.C. Williams.

The show continued with performances by four bands from other parts of Virginia. They were Princess Ann of Virginia Beach, George Washington of Danville, E.C. Glass from Lynchburg, and J.R. Tucker of Richmond.

The final competitors were from out of state. Fairmont of Fairmont, West Virginia; West Genesee of Comillus, New York; Sylva Webster from Sylva, North Carolina; and Statesville of Statesville, North Carolina were the competitors. The three hour show was climaxed by the magnificent performance of the president's own United States Drum and Bugle Corps.

West Genesee won the competition. Sylva Webster captured second. Statesville took third.

All the bands await the announcement of the winners.

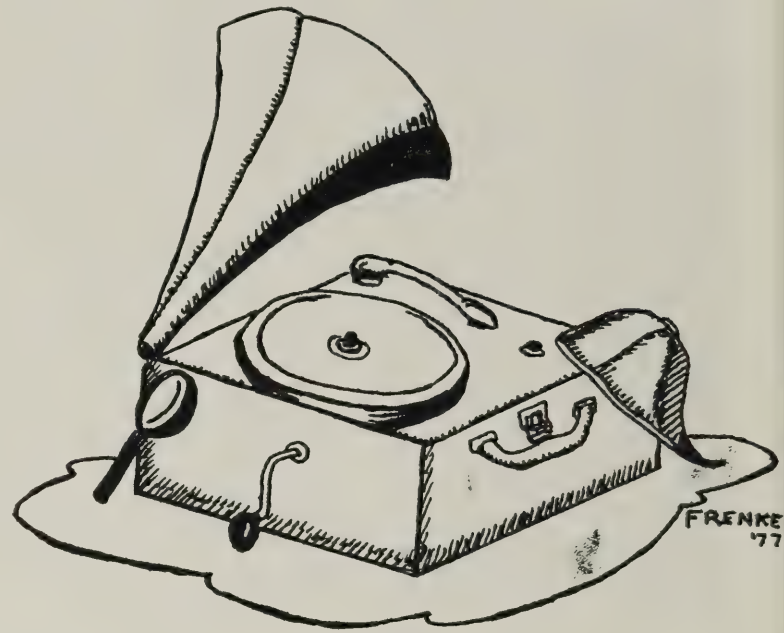

Drama Does It Again

A musical spoof of Agatha Christie's mystery novels opened the Drama Department's season this year. It was one of the most difficult productions the department had ever attempted. The crews were kept busy building a two-story set, unusual props, and explosive effects. Many of the members of the cast made their acting debuts. The hard work of the crew, orchestra, and cast were evident each night of the production.

Sadie Hawkins Characters Create The Mood of the Dance

Hayfights, the Virginia Reel, and getting married all characterized this year's Sadie Hawkins Dance. The eighteen Characters grubbed $600 and rounded up enough people to make Sadie Hawkins the most popular informal dance of the year.

The Chalk Garden

The Chalk Garden was the second major drama production of the year at FCHS. The show, a drama, was selected, produced, and performed by members of the Drama Club. Mr. Allen did his usual brilliant job of directing this subtle, psychological play assisted by Janis Creekmore. The play was presented in February and as Margie Cooper struggled to get the set up in the Little Theatre, long hours of rehearsals in studio 173 were paying off for the cast. Despite Carole's missed entrances, Jim's dropping the China, Shawn "perching" here and there, Lisa's cracking up over the hedges and the fenceposts, and a terrific snowstorm which hit the night before the closing night of the show; all went well, and everyone had a thoroughly good time.

Drama Department High School Pageant

Sharian Farnsworth is escorted by David Stephens.

Due to the fire in the auditorium, the date of the Miss Falls Church High School pageant was postponed until January 28. The Drama Department sponsored the annual event for the second consecutive year.

Co-hosted by David Frenkel and Jim McOmber, the Pageant began with a dance number performed by the twenty talented and beautiful contestants. Following the dance routine the young ladies were presented to the judges and audience in both casual and formal attire. After all were presented the winner of Miss Congeniality was announced. Iris Peoples was thrilled that the other girls in the pageant selected her for this honor.

Janet Place provided the entertainment during the intermission while the judges decided on the eight semi-finalists. After some minor difficulties with the microphones, Janet sang an old Beatles song and then one she had written herself entitled "later Day Hippie."

After the judges decisions of the semifinalist were announced, the eight girls each went on to perform an individual talent. Following the talent portion there was another intermission. Again Janet Place provided the entertainment.

During the intermission the judges: Ms. Lynn Peltin, Mr. S. John Davis, Ms. Jane Jones, and Mr. Joseph King had to make the difficult decision of choosing the four finalists.

After the important questions of the finalists, there was a short break for the judges to make their final choices. During this time, the audience was entertained by a song written and performed by our current Miss Falls Church High School Tammy Hull.

With the decisions finally made, the crowd anxiously awaited to hear the winners announced. The third runner-up was Margi Day; the second runner-up was Debbie Sponable; the first runner-up was Melanie Tschida. The audience was thrilled as last year's senior class president, Archie Borgus, sang "This She Is, Miss Falls Church High" as Sharian Farnsworth, our new Miss FCHS was crowned by Tammy Hull and escorted down the runway and to her chair by David Stephens.

“Always and Forever” Provides The Perfect Atmosphere At the 1977-78 Sweetheart Dance

Throughout the evening couples danced to the music of “Inside Straight.” The theme of “Always and Forever” seemed appropriate for this traditional dance. The Student Government, sponsoring the dance spent many hours decorating the cafeteria and stand for the queen, Barbara Fitzpatrick. This dance set the school on the right path to lead onto the next formal dance.

Giving was the word used by teachers. Many teachers volunteered to wear what they felt was the ugliest teacher. Students donated their change to these teachers. The more money donated, the uglier the teacher. When the money was counted, Mr. Wilcox won for the second year in a row.

"Please give," begs Miss Comeau.

"Give or I'll take off my glasses."

The third play of the year was the annual thespian production. Considering the troupe's size, a staggering twenty-one members, the perennially funny standard show, "You Can't Take It With You," was chosen. All members were actively involved in either on stage or back stage work. Rehearsals, sometimes hectic or hysterical, began to form the show. Crew work commenced. By production week, everything was in good shape, a rare occurrence. All efforts were graciously rewarded by two fine performances and a keg at the cast party.

Informal Dances Highlight The Year

"Well, if you really want me to stay . . ."

"I want to suck your blood!"

Mike Snowden asks Lisa Lowrance to dance.

"Isabel, will you wake up?" asks Danny Sykes.

Dances Are Well Attended

During this school year, informal dances dominated the scene. They were sponsored by most of the classes, several of the organizations, and usually by the Student Government. There were five informal dances during the course of the year.

On the average, 400 people attended each dance. The sponsor usually earned approximately $300 as a result.

On May 13, the Junior Class sponsored the traditional Prom. This year it was held at the Elks Club. The atmosphere was just made for the romantic at heart. The formal gowns and matching tuxedos added much to the atmosphere.

Each couple spent hours preparing themselves for the dance. The couples went to dinner with friends at elegant restaurants. As they entered the dance, the band, "Free Spirit" set the mood of the theme, "Wishing On A Star." The Senior Class will long remember this gift.

For the first time, the varsity football season began before school had started. The season started with two disappointing losses to Madison and Lee. The tie with Oakton proved to be a turning point for the Jags. In games following this one, the football team was continuously victorious.

All of the last games were crucial to the team. One loss would force the Jaguars to relinquish their lead in the district.

The game which was most highly contested was the game against Jefferson, which decided the Potomac District leader. The Jags went on to win this game convincingly due to defense's ability to recover fumbles.

The rivalry between Falls Church and Stuart continued this year. The last game of the regular season was played against the Raiders. Falls Church won the game with a wide point margin, winning the bell back and clinching the Potomac District title for the second year in a row.

Disappointing was the word to describe the Junior Varsity football team's record this season. Although they made many valiant efforts, the opponents were too overpowering for the J.V. Jags to handle.

Being in the underdog position, the team grew closer and worked even harder.

With a losing season behind them, the Junior Varsity team can look forward to a more successful year on the Varsity Jaguars squad.

Restoring an old tradition, the Freshman football team had an undefeated 6-0 season. They would have been unscored had it not been for Annandale.

Victory became a way of life for the Baby Jags. This experience will be extremely valuable in the years to come. The team shows a great deal of potential for the future. This outstanding group of people will bring pride and victory to Falls Church High School for the next three years.

According to Head Coach Nancy Weisgerber, the Girl's Varsity Tennis team had a good and tougher scheduled season. The girls ended the season with a 7 — 5 dual meet record. The doubles combination of Mary Ellen and Carol Daniels captured the Potomac District as well as Northern Regional titles. In singles, Carol Daniels finished second in the District and Regional tournaments. Showing outstanding improvement were Joyce Scalzo and Karla Reinertson. Coach Weisgerber feels that next year's returning team should be strong despite the big losses of seniors Carol Daniels and Mimi Mastropaolo.

Julie Jones puts the rush on her opponents.

With the Potomac District evenly distributed, our Varsity Field Hockey team with a 2 — 2 — 1 record placed fifth. The team was only a full game away from the leader and a half game out of second. Head Coach Sandy Reynolds describes the season as a "building year" with the loss of only three seniors. Two outstanding players were seniors Kathy Cunningham and Sassy Schaffstall because of their experience and versatility. Despite the final standing in the District, our Varsity Field Hockey team had an accomplishing, successful season.

The girl's Junior Varsity team finished with a 3 — 2 — 3 record under Coach Pat Jones. The team fared well despite its youth and inexperience. An offensive stand out was the team leader, Patty Christie. Defensively for the Jags, goalie Mary Cunningham played very well and kept the score close in many games.

For the first time in the history of the school, the Cross Country team won the Potomac District championship. The team lost only one match to Annandale.

The Cross Country Runners competed in the Winchester and Poloty Invitionals. When the scores had been counted, Falls Church had taken third place in the Poloty Invitational. This was the first time they competed in this event.

Next year's team will have quite a bit of trouble as most of the team this year are seniors. Coach Wells says that Cross Country has a lot of young runners waiting in the wings, so the team will be strong next year.

“We Will Rock You” — Queen —

The 1978 Falls Church Varsity Wrestling Team rocked their way to an undefeated dual meet season while capturing the Christmas, district, and regional tournaments. It was the first time in the history of the school that the team went undefeated and brought home the Northern Region Title. Coach Wilcox produced eight champions with sixteen individual titles. Of the sixteen titles, six were from the Christmas tourney, six from districts, three from regionals and one returning state champion. Being composed of nine seniors, the team was experienced and well-trained. Outstanding wrestlers were two-time state champion, John Hanrahan 155, regional winners: Sam Smith 126, and Steve Swankowski unlimited. Contributing vital team points were freshman Paul Gallahan 98, Turner Kobayashi 112, Steve Passino 119, and Burt Clayburne 138. Clayburne did an excellent job in the state tournament, coming back from a controversial call to take third place. They might have “blood on their face” but they were definitely not a “big disgrace.”

A familiar sight: Regional champ Sam Smith throws his opponent for another quick pin.

Highlighting every season is the tournaments. Running away with the Potomac District and the Northern Region, the Jag wrestlers took six and three individual titles respectively. The team looked state-bound but was spoiled by a bad first round. Only two Jaguars placed in the State tournament. Burt Clayborne earned a 3rd place at 138, while John Hanrahan slicked his way to his second consecutive state title.

Continuing the winning tradition, the Junior Varsity and Freshman Jaguar wrestlers dominated the two invitational tournaments they participated in. The young grapplers' hard work paid off in the end despite a trying dual meet season. Leading the J.V. team were Chuck Collier, Wendell Holmes, Bob Rike, Scott Steadman, John Miller, Mike Kresky, Time Martin, and Gary Harding. With the valuable experience of the tournaments, the young wrestlers should be able to carry on the winning ways.

The Varsity Basketball began the season with high hopes, but finished with a disappointing record of 5-16. The team, under first year coach Tom Whitworth, was one of the most inexperienced in the area, with only Bob Schlattman returning from last year's squad. The inexperience showed as turn overs and mistakes plagued the Jaguars throughout the year, yet there were some bright spots. The team captured the Edison Christmas Tournament with back-to-back wins over Edison and Annandale. Craig Rhew was named M.V.P. and George Manion was named to the all-tournament team.

The team, while losing most of its games, was competitive in most of them, losing many by six points or less. It loses Rhew, Manion, Schlattman, and Jr. Nichols, but returns juniors Ashley Sharman, Bryan Mason, and Craig Morris, along with Mike Grayson. With work next years squad should easily improve on this year's record.

Falls Church is head and shoulders above Fairfax.

Throughout the 1977-78 season, the Junior Varsity Basketball team worked hard to improve their overall skills. The J.V. Jags continued to build their strength and confidence with every single game.

The leading scorers for the team were Mike Angelini, Bob Lamon, and Kevin Young. They seemed to compile many more points each time they came on the court.

The leading rebounder this year was Kevin Young. Kevin kept the ball in the hands of the Jaguars for a great portion of every game.

The 1977-78 J.V. team will be a tremendous asset to next year's Varsity team.

Freshman Basketball Shows Promise for the Future

The Freshman Basketball team showed progress throughout their season. Each game they developed the skill needed to produce a win. As the season passed, the Baby Jags began to look more and more like a well balanced team. As they won a new game, the frosh grew more confident and worked even harder.

The 1977-78 Frosh team will make a terrific J.V. squad.

The girls' Junior Varsity basketball team displayed one hundred percent effort and intense competition on the floor this year. Taking great pride in their hustling defense, the Jags limited their opponents to the low scores of 20, 26, and 29 points. Team leader and high scorer Julie Jones was a key role in the offensive attack. While, freshman Maria Lusick averaged eleven rebounds per game to lead the team. Coach Jim Thorpe stressed the importance of hard work and hustle enabling a total team effort on the squad's part.

Indoor Track Races To A 3rd Place In Districts

Due to snow cancellations, the Indoor Track Team participated in only two dual meets. Winning over Wakefield and losing to Woodson, the Jags split with a 1-1 record. In the District tournament, the team brought home a third place with individual champions being Dave Gatton in the sixty yard-dash and Jim Stannard in the shot put.

Gymnasts Capture Third Place

With a 4-2 District Record, the Jag gymnasts captured a third place during the dual meet season. The team was young and had tremendous depth in all events. Top performers in floor exercises were Susan Miller and Lori Utterback. While Freshmen Johanna Richards, Dawn Gerhart, and Elly Flaherty led the squad in vaulting. With Jill Murphy on the beam and Seniors Linda Hartung and Larrie Watkins on the unevens, the team took seventh place out of twenty four teams in the highly competitive Parkview Invitational Tournament. Adding strength was all-around competitor Cheryl Friedman.

Fantastic is the best word to use to describe the varsity boys soccer team. The seven four year lettermen and four three year lettermen made the team extremely strong. All the experience is shown through the technique and the finesse of the Jags. Even with all the outstanding players, the teamwork was strongly shown.

The leading scorers are Junior Nichols and Steve Grain. The defense averages one goal per game. The defense has given the varsity five shut-outs.

Although the team is losing eight players to college with scholarships, Coach Rike feels the team will be strong next year.

Scott Gardiner and Mr. Rike watch as practice begins.

This year, the J.V. Soccer team started the year with individual team problems but improved with every game. Every time they played they built their skill and played still harder.

Steve Craigue watches as the ball comes down the field.

The captains are Steve Craigue and Bruce Pommer. Some of the leading scorers are Gene Bostian, Brian Pommer, and Paul LeMair. The goalie, John Blackburn, although he was just moved to that position, has shown much skill there. John Lee and Doug Stroud have put their skills to work in a strong defense. Coach Junk says, "Although no more than eleven players can be on the field at a time, any one of the subs could play with just as much skill."

The Varsity Baseball team rebounded from last years poor season to be contenders in the Potomac District. The season started with three quick wins but some of the inexperience on the team caused them to give up their undefeated record. However, the Jags quickly matured and put on a fine run for the district championship. Their was excellent play by returning lettermen Mike MacNevin, Andy Hendrickson, Scott Reeves, Rob Woolf, Jeff Harris, and Scott Rowland and first year personnel Glen Beach, Mike Reeves, Marshall O'Shields. The strong pitching of Bob Lamon, Mark Mills and Rocky Basham contributed greatly to the winning cause of the '78 Jaguars.

Boys Track Runs Into Difficulty

Homer McElroy and Matt Murray limber up before practice.

This has been a year of growing for the Boy's Varsity Track Team. They had a new four mile relay team which placed first and set a new record. The team consisted of four veteran runners Matt Murray, Pat Sullivan, Terry Jones, and Homer McElroy. Many of the rest of the team are new members. Everyone improved as the season progressed. Both new and old put forth a valiant team effort.

This was a winning season for Girl's Varsity Track Team. They have not done as well in several years. They placed third in districts. Six of the girls went on to regionals — Ann Payne, second in long jump, fifth in hurdles, fifth in 220; Stacey Taylor, got fourth in discus; Cheryl Dolan got second in shot-put and third in 220; Mindy Pajak received fifth in the two mile; Stephanie Stukes, Ann Payne, Greta Wimmer, and Cheryl Dolan placed second in the 880 relay team. Overall it was one of the best seasons ever.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Government

Leads the Way

Student Government Officers: Janet Place, Secretary-Treasurer; David Stephens, VPECA; Alison Price, President; Laurie Karlson, VPCA; Kathy Holmes, Parliamentarian.

From their headquarters situated in the S.G. room, the 1977-78 Student Government ruled the school with an iron hand. They were involved in everything from public relations work to changes in the school constitution. They created the Principal-Student Advisory Board, which served as a liason between the principal and the student body. The Advisory Board is made up of representatives of every social group in the school. From their idea, many other schools have followed their lead.

An important and much appreciated contribution of the Student Government is the increase of different activities during Pride Week. Every day during the week before the Stuart game was designated as a different day: Monday — Mourning Day; Tuesday — Inside-Out Day; Wednesday — No Sweat Day; Thursday — Hat and Hex Day; Friday — Green & White and Bell Day. On Friday the halls were decorated by different organizations. The S.G. also ran the voting machines used during Homecoming elections. The S.G. provided leadership for the entire student body.

Mr. Bruce Campbell, S.G. Sponsor

The 5 elected representatives from each class make up the Legislature. Their job is to vote on important matters in the school that affect everyone. This year they have used their votes wisely, giving money to the Jaguar Journal and the Literary Magazine; money for remodeling the Principal's Conference Room; bought an edger and a trimmer for the custodial staff to improve school grounds; had the Senior Class Mosaic mounted in the Auditorium; and paid the bills for the Hotline. The Legislature was also involved in welcoming new students and visitors to the school.

Committee Chairmen and SAC help S.G.

Student Advisory Council: Sharon Floyd, Mindy Pajak, Debbie Sponable, Barb Wheatley, Laurie Karlson, Janet Place, Kathy Holmes.

This year the Committee Chairmen helped the S.G. in the heading up of such things as organizing dances, running elections, and keeping the various calendars in the school up to date. Without this group of people, who are not always recognized as being important, many S.G. projects would not have been successful.

The Student Advisory Council works to co-ordinate our S.G. with the area school supervisors. One of the main issues this year was the smoking ban. Several members spoke before the school board to provide the students' opinions on the issue. Members tried to supply the missing link between the students and the School Board.

National Junior Honor Society Increases Membership.

The National Junior Honor Society is an organization which recognizes academic excellence among freshmen and sophomores. The members are selected on the basis of a 3.5 grade point average. This year the N.J.H.S. sponsored a school spelling bee and a Battle of the Sexes between the Boys and Girls Varsity Basketball teams. Members also enjoyed trips to King's Dominion, and bowling and skating parties.

Juniors Inducted in September

The National Honor Society requires a 3.5 grade point average for admittance. The Society performs many necessary activities throughout the year, including maintaining the Honor Roll roster of straight A students, distributing report cards, and assisting as guides for College Night.

The Society also tutors students requesting help, presents the Joe Webb scholarships to ten graduating seniors, and participates in Pride Week activities.

Many of the NHS juniors take Civ.

French Honor Society Explores Culture

The French Honor Society is made up of students who have studied the French language for three or more years. Their purpose is to learn about and experience the culture of France. They have invited native French speakers to their meetings, had dinner at a French restaurant, and have seen French movies. The French Honor Society is also a service club, putting on their annual Faculty Christmas Party, and doing a charity project in the spring.

The German Club Enlightens FCHS

The F.C.H.S. German Club did its best to bring a little bit of German to our school. Through its many activities the club has enlightened our school and others. During the fall they had a picnic with games such as softball and football. They planned a visit to the German Embassy, and a soccer game against the Spanish Club. The club also planned a Progressive Dinner, and a student exchange with the German School in Washington. Their service activities include a bake sale and the German section of the Foreign Language Christmas Tea.

The membership of the Debate Team has doubled since last year. The Debaters, in order to compete at their very best, spend long hours researching their material, then getting together to discuss their formats. With their enthusiasm growing each year, the Falls Church debate team will soon be number one.

Math Team Enjoys A Challenge

The math team is made up of students who are interested in math and enjoy a challenge. The team competes with other high schools in the county and attends meets during the year. Through a lot of hard work and effort they have succeeded in advancing in the ranks among other school teams.

Jaguar Journal

Cathie Arundel smiles for the birdie while Joy Bryan, Vickie Allen and Ellen Murray look for their articles in print.

In spite of the enormous pressures and confusion of meeting deadlines, the 77-78 Jaguar Journal staff managed to provide Falls Church with an informative and interesting publication. Working from a newly acquired office, the Journal staff worked harder than ever to produce a paper that was enlightening and journalistically sound.

The Journal staff involved itself with other activities as well. The staff went on the annual field trip to New York's Columbia University in March. In addition, it sponsored the creation of the Falls Church chapter of the Quill and Scroll Honor Society for journalist.

Yearbook Staff faces Some Difficulty In Meeting Deadlines

Carrie Washburn, Co-editor

This year the 1978 Jaguar staff began before school had started. They undertook the hardest job first, they redecorated and painted the yearbook room. The staff also attended a three day seminar to learn new methods of layout and to get ideas for this year's book.

They began in September by deciding the theme, creating the cover design, and organizing the sections. Soon after this, the most difficult job began, meeting the deadlines. As each of the deadlines grew closer, the evening work became more frequent. At times the dedicated staff spent long and late hours trying to meet the deadlines.

Organization could not always be a word used to describe this year's staff. During the year phrases such as "I thought you did it!", "What do you mean we don't have enough candid's!", and "Now, who quit?" became increasingly more common.

Finally all the loose ends were tied together. The staff demonstrated how hard work and co-operation can be rewarding as well as fun, when the 1978 Jaguar was distributed in June.

Literary Magazine Adds Class To Falls Church

The Literary Magazine is a collection of works produced by creative members of our student body. It included poetry, short stories, artwork and photography. For the second year in a row the Literary Magazine distributed its two issues free of charge to the entire school. The magazine attempts to publish as many students' works as possible.

Third Row: Sponsor: Mrs. Linda Cotts, Treasurer: Luis Benedicto, Chau Ton, President: Anthony Ladia, Vice-president: Pascal Dinh.

The purpose of the International Club is to improve relationships among foreign students and between foreign students and American students at Falls Church High School. Our aim is to eliminate prejudice and discrimination among the students of our school. The club also helps new foreign students with their studies that involve difficult English. Finally, we learn about different countries. The club has sponsored bake sales of international foods this year. The activities we plan for the coming year are International Club parties, more bake sales, and an improved International Night.

Rifle Club is on Target

Dorcas Rodgers works on her aim.

This year the number of members in the Rifle Club has decreased, but the enthusiasm hasn't. The Rifle Club is doing more things than ever, besides gun-related issues.

DECA Seesaws for Muscular Dystrophy

During the 1977-78 school year, Distributive Education Careers of America (DECA) was hard at work. They were involved in a Christmas Toy round-up, regional contests, and a seesaw marathon for muscular dystrophy. DECA's main objective is increasing job skills, and they worked toward this by attending a career fair and an Employer Appreciation Banquet. They also went to a state DECA contest in Roanoke, and worked on a shoplifting prevention project.

WECEP is a cooperative work program where students in jobs such as good service, medical labs, service stations, retail stores, and many others. They receive on-the-job training, explore different careers, and earn money while they learn.

WECEP also has an organized club which carries on service projects and participates in field trip activities. They held a Christmas party at the Belvedere Headstart Day Care Center for 4 year olds. The working students contributed money from which Christmas presents were purchased.

In the spring field trips are taken, including one to Kings Dominion. There they will join other WECEP clubs from Fairfax County.

VICA Provides Leadership

This year's Vocational Industrial Co-operative Association (VICA) was immensely successful, due almost entirely to the expert leadership provided by Mr. Beto. VICA offers the student a chance to become familiar with the business world, and allows him to enter into competitions in the fields of sales, advertisement and display.

R.C. Model Airplane Club Offers New Hobby

The newest club in our school this year is the Radio Controlled Model Airplane Club, sponsored by Mrs. Blacker. Their purpose is, as the name suggests, to learn more about R.C. model airplanes. They concentrate on the building and flying of radio controlled aircraft. They also study the techniques of building and flying, and explore hangar flying. This organization offers an interesting new hobby, and promises to become a tradition at Falls Church.

FHA Continues Tradition

Once again the Future Homemakers of America has continued the tradition of raising money to donate to needy children. This year their beneficiary was Children's Hospital. The girls made crafts and projects during the year to sell to raise the money. The club sponsors, Mrs. LaViolette and Mrs. Nordness, helped the girls with this worth cause.

Choral Club Newly Formed

The choral club was newly formed in late November. The director is Mr. R.S. Newsome, who is assisted by Mrs. J. Lithcott. The club meets Tuesdays and Thursdays. Since the club is new, no officers have been elected as yet. The members are singing all kinds of music, from popular to classical.

Tabs Raise Funds

After a slow start, the Torch and Banner Service Club really started working. They continued their tradition of choosing a teacher of the month, and raised funds for the March of Dimes. They also helped the Salvation Army. Tabs really participated in the charitable institutions.

Civinettes Strive To Wipe Out Graffiti

Again this year the Civinettes were actively involved in the school and community. During football season, this service club picked up trash in the stadium and parking lot. The Civinettes painted the restrooms to cover up the graffiti on the walls, but it appeared again soon after the paint had dried. The club sold fruit cakes to benefit the National Civitan Organization.

The Civinettes have made plans to raise money for the National Association of Retarded Citizens through many activities. They also planned to visit Children's Hospital and a nursing home.

The Key Club had a sudden revival this year. The membership increased by at least one hundred percent.

The club was very active within the school. They were guards at both wrestling matches and basketball games to make sure no booze goes in. After the games they cleaned up under the stands.

Even before school had officially opened, the Keyettes were hard at work helping with Freshman Orientation and painting the outdoor benches around the school. They continued with their civic work by collecting for the March of Dimes twice, the Kidney Foundation, and Unicef. They also baked for the Olympics for Retarded Children. In school, the Keyettes surprised the teachers with candy in their mailboxes for Halloween. They also served as usherettes for the PTA and Dr. Davis, and sold voodoo dolls during Pride Week. The Keyettes have been truly one of the most active clubs in the school.

Frosh Cheerleaders Learn the Ropes

Frosh Cheerleaders: Martha Walton, Kris Pieri, Michelle Anthony, Lisa Potvin, Co-Captain; Ann Goodwin, Captain; Stacey Stevens, Lisa VanAncken, Karol Ponton.

School spirit was very high this year due in part to the enthusiastic cheerleading squads. The cheerleaders, sponsored again this year by Miss Scott, led the way in making this the best year ever. They held lots of pep rallies, consisting of tricycle races, competition cheers, shaving cream pools, and of course the introductions of the athletic teams. They made

The cheerleaders were busy away from school, too. They cheered for the Washington Diplomats at RFK and attended the Maryland cheerleading clinic. They also held a clinic for area cheerleaders from Maryland, D.C. and Virginia.

Pep Club Adds Spirit

The pep club came through again this year by assisting the cheerleaders in many ways. They added their support and enthusiasm at games, helped serve dinners to the football players, and decorated halls for pride week. The Pep Club not only provided that needed spirit when the team was behind, but also did service work for the school.

Once again this year the Wrestlerettes have provided the encouragement the wrestlers need to give their best performances. The Wrestlerettes raised funds by selling candles and programs. They displayed their enthusiasm for the school by decorating the stairwells for pride week. This is the Wrestlerettes' third year, and they're still going strong.

Marching Band Works Hard to Maintain High Quality

Once again this year the Falls Church High School Marching Band was one of the major crowd attractions. Under the field direction of Sherman Phillips the band worked long and hard to keep up the Falls Church tradition of having the best band around.

The Action

The Famous Guillotine.

The superiority of the Marching Band was displayed at the many competitions that they attended. Their trips to the Fairmont Spectacular, the University of Virginia, and the Robinson Spectacular were highly successful. They took first place at the "Lynchburg Classic" held in Lynchburg, Va. They also hosted the first annual F.C.H.S. Tournament of Bands. During the Christmas season they sold wreaths and greens to raise money for their many excursions. They also prepared to go to the Festival of States competition, held in Florida.

Some band members rest after practice.

The third year of the Stage Band has definitely been another success. This year with the membership numbering 23, the sound has been good. The band again this year proved to be a service organization, playing for community and civic groups.

When the weather gets too cold for marching, the F.C.H.S. Marching Band comes indoors and divides into the Concert and Symphonic Bands.

The Symphonic Band is comprised of the best musicians who had to challenge for their chairs and work hard to keep them.

The Concert Band is made up of the remaining members of the band, who may challenge for a place in the Symphonic Band.

This year, both bands performed in a Christmas Concert, and prepared for the Band Festival. Also, members of both bands had the opportunity to try out for the All-Regional Band on the concert and symphonic levels.

To start the year, the orchestra played at the PTA open house. The members visited several area elementary schools to play for them. In December the orchestra participated in the Music Departments' Christmas program.

Some of the members were asked to help a local church. The church was putting on a Christmas program.

A few members were accepted in the Regional Orchestra. In March these members and the rest of the orchestra performed in a Music Festival in March.

Polly Trammell becomes involved in her music.

Mark Goldman has "bow" legs.

The most imaginative and immodest people in the school have to be the Thespians. The International Thespian Society, Troupe 1330, is a group interested in the acting, backstage and technical aspects of drama. The honor of being a Thespian comes only after hard work in each of these areas. Inductions are held twice a year and are highlighted by Neophyte Day.

Fifth Row — Kim Manois, Jim Jones, Bruce Manilla, Dee Landis, Caroline Thomas, Marian Waters, Amy Loveless, Liz Oram, Cheryl Reynolds, David Amorosi, Marla Levin, Holly Wortman.

Sponsored again this year by Mr. Allen, the Drama Club was a collection of some of the most talented "hams" in the school.

Their production "Something's Afoot" was a rousing success, with a magnificent two story set and an experienced cast, featuring Jane Peterson as Miss Tweed and Janet Place as Hope Langdon, the ingenue.

The Drama Room is the place to go if you need a new insight on life. Members of the Drama Club just do their own thing and don't worry about what others think. This year's Drama Club was one of the best.

Administration

DR. JAMES WILSON, Principal

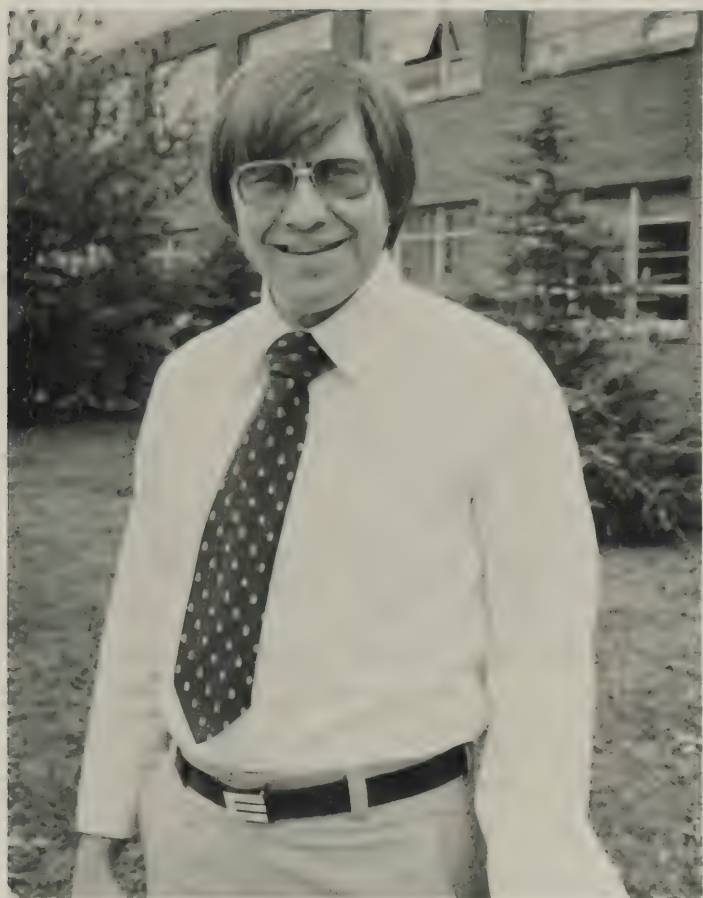

MR. JAMES FLANNAGAN, Director of Pupil Services

Providing a strong foundation is the basic aim of the administration. With Dr. Wilson as their leader, Mr. Flannagan, Mr. Hollowell, Mr. Mueller, Mr. Powell, and Mr. Stepp tried to help students through the crossroads which are encountered in the high school years. The Principal Advisory Board, which consisted of students and administrators, was one way in which students could air their views. By finding an administrator in the hall, students could "shoot the breeze." It was nice to know that a cooperative administration was always ready to listen.

Like every year, the secretaries played an important role in helping both the administration and students. Mrs. Jane Timian, Dr. Wilson's secretary, aided him with the simple, but every day tasks of answering the telephone and typing replies to letters. When students wanted to know how much money a particular club had in its treasury, Mrs. Betty Parker, the financial secretary, always knew the answer. The guidance department secretaries helped the counselors fill out college transcripts for the seniors.

Upon arrival.

Noonday decision: "How can I beat 'em to the lunch line?"

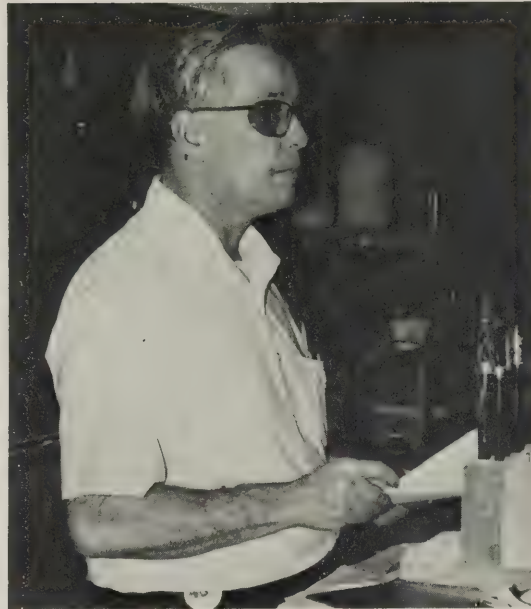

"Her hair held up, but she didn't."

Scheduling students for next year's classes was a major part of the guidance department's job. Since most of the counselors had to take care of students in two grade levels, this job involved a lot of time. Helping seniors pick out the right college or university was another major function of the guidance department. Along with these usual problems that any kind of advisor must face, the counselors made several hundred class transfers for unhappy students.

Combined Courses Encourage

College Bound Students

Combined classes of English and Social Studies played an important role in this year's curriculum. According to several teachers, the students who take these courses are at a cross-roads where they want the most out of their high school education rather than the minimum required to graduate. Students in these classes took several field trips including a World Civilization trip to the Washington Cathedral, an American Civilization trip to Williamsburg and several Humanities' trips to the Kennedy Center "In order to become cultured."

Lastly, continued emphasis was placed on proper grammar usage in all grade levels.

Over Foreign Languages

The Language Department continued to emphasize living in foreign-speaking countries throughout the world. However, several techniques for learning the various languages were changed. According to the language department chairman, Mr. William Hayden, "The Spanish classes listened to an excellent television series called Zarabanda which is useful for students in all levels of Spanish." Students in French I, II and III used different books than those used in previous years. French IV spent a lot of time learning about the history of the land mass now called France while fifth year students read French novels. A new Latin teacher, Mrs. Marilyn Welch, taught Levels I and III, which were the two levels offered this year. The German students continued to learn the basic vocabulary and grammar needed to become fluent in the language.

Students Keep Up With Advances in Sciences

The Science Department experienced several changes this year. The Earth and Space Program, started last year, was even a bigger success this year. The course combined science and reading together and was taught by both a science and reading teacher. The yellow version, a new version of Biology

I, was added this year and the enrollment in chemistry classes increased. In March, the annual Science Fair was held at Lee High School and several FCHS students participated, exhibiting projects in the many fields of science.

Fine Arts Allows For Creativity

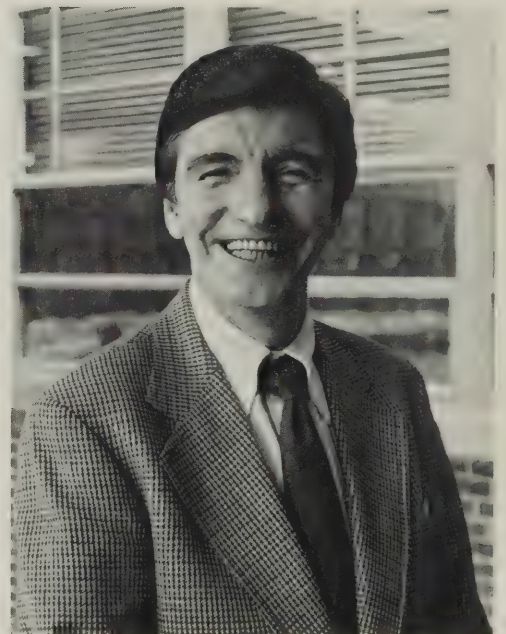

Under the direction of Mr. George Allen, the drama department put on several plays. "Something's Afoot," the first production of the year, was a spoof on one of Agatha Christie's books.

In the classroom, drama students discussed the history of the theatre, focusing on the types of furniture and clothes popular during previous years.

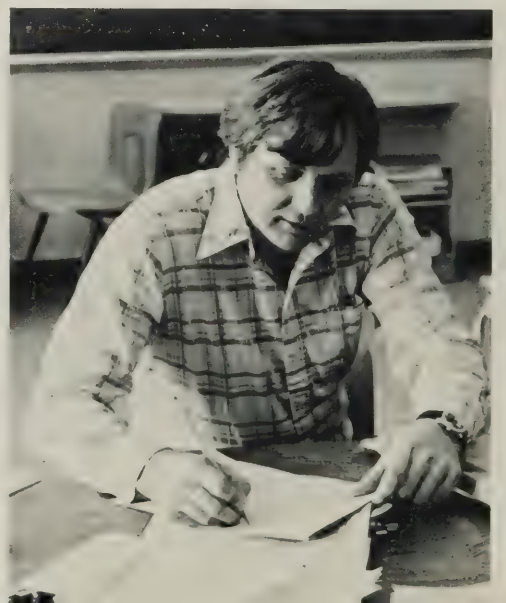

The marching band participated in several competitions, placing first in the Lynchburg Classic and the Southeastern Tournament of Bands. In October, the FCHS music department hosted the First Annual Tournament of Bands. Before a sellout crowd, the competition was topped off with a performance by the U.S. Marine Drum and Bugle Corps. The big trip of the year occurred over spring vacation, when the band proudly represented Virginia at the Festival of States in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Also participating in musical competitions were the orchestra, stage band and intermediate band. These musicians played all types of music including classical, jazz, and modern.

In the Driver Education classes, students learned the mechanics of safe driving.

Co-educational locker rooms were the major change in this year's physical education curriculum. In past years, the boys have dressed in the locker rooms in the main gym and the girls used the ones in the auxiliary gym. This year, students were assigned to locker rooms which corresponded with the location in which their classes were held. This change cut down on the noise level in the hall caused by roaming P.E. students.

The 1977-78 Cafeteria Staff

On Bite-Right

The cafeteria staff worked hard to make the Bite-Right program successful. Incorporated this year, the new lunch program tried to improve the nutritional value and appearance of school lunches. Different types of food were added to the a la carte line, a second fast food line was started, and the wrapping paper on such items as hamburgers was made to look "more pleasing to the eye."

Thanks to the custodians, FCHS was kept one of the cleanest schools in the county. With Mr. Horace McCarroll leading the team of custodians; floors were mopped, windows washed and lockers unjammed. For those special times during the year, the cafeteria had to be set up for the Homecoming and Sweetheart Dances.

SENIORS

Seniors, '78

Scott Cox, President

Jane Scott, Vice-President

The Senior Class, when they were the Junior Class, sponsored a "classy", special, and successful prom last year. They continued to be prosperous this year. As usual, the seniors made all the preparations for Homecoming. They sponsored the traditional Sadie Hawkins Dance and through "grubbing" netted a large sum of money. Fund-raising activities were held throughout the year. The profits from this work and toil went toward graduation, which was held at Webber Stadium.

The school has changed a great deal in the past four years. When the members of the class of '78 were Freshman, the school was in a process of evaluation. The school was made aware of a need to combat apathy and improve relations within the school — two factors which had tarnished its public image.

In the final year at Falls Church, seniors could be proud of a school where students, faculty, and administrators formed a harmonious, functioning environment in which they could live, work, and enjoy. It was reassuring to realize that other than the increasingly heated rivalry between Falls Church and Stuart, the greatest controversies were catsup dispensers, sporks, and graffiti.

School spirit was no longer in a state of decline. Seniors were proud of their many accomplishments. They constructed a fine float and put together the winning hall during "Pride Week." The happy ending of the week was provided when the Bell, which has been residing at Stuart came home again to Falls Church!

Enrollment in advanced classes continued to increase in '78, and this year saw a greater enrollment of students in the Humanities, Science, and Advanced Mathematics.

The Class of 1978 had many reasons to be proud of the past four years and their individual preparation for the roads and crossroads which are in the future.

Juniors: Class of '79

Class Officers

Being short of money, the Junior Class spent most of the year raising funds for the prom. They began in early October with a rummage sale which proved profitable. This was followed by an informal dance featuring "Sound Dynamics" on the twenty-ninth of October. From the fourteenth through the twentieth of November, the industrious class of '79 sold candles. For more funds and entertainment the juniors revived the variety show. This was held in January to the delight of many sluggish students.

Besides raising money, the juniors were busy showing pride in their class by entering a float in the homecoming competition and by decorating a hall during pride week with the theme "Put Stuart in Their Place."

On December fifth, class rings were ordered. These are a sign of prestige and power. In April, when the rings arrived, the class sponsored a dance in honor of the occasion. It was successful both emotionally and financially.

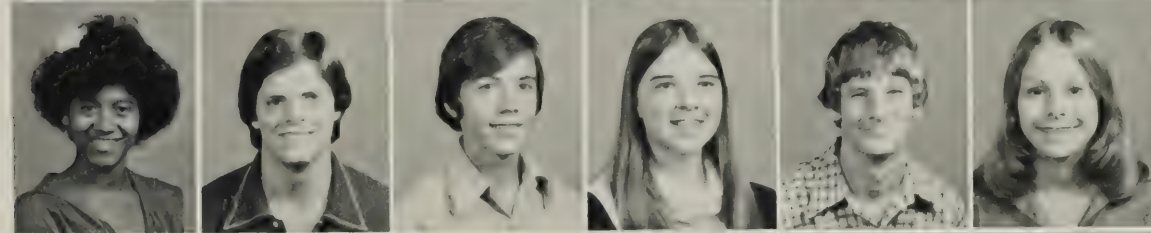

The hard work and perseverance in raising funds paid off at the prom. The formal dance that capped off a memorable year was held on May thirteenth at the Elk's Lodge. The music was provided by Free Spirit. As the year came to an end, the class of '79 suddenly realized that they are about to enter their senior year, and that they would soon be graduating and taking many different roads never knowing when they would cross the paths of others.

Sophomores: Class of '80

Linda Farrell, Treasurer; Renee Little, Vice-President; Cindy Lloyd, President; Dana Lewis, Secretary; Courtney Karlson, Cabinet Officer.

Pride and school spirit were apparent qualities of this year's Sophomore class. Being the largest class in the school, they won many competition cheers at the pep rallies throughout the year. During pride week, the biology hall was beautifully decorated by many dedicated Sophomores. At the homecoming game, the class of '80 took first place in the float contest. The award winning float was entitled "Round Em Up And Ship Em Out." This was depicted by a pony express rider delivering a crate of Langley football players.

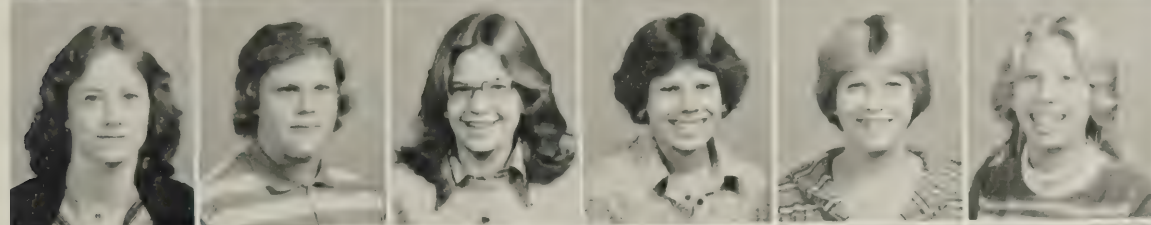

Fund raising was another aspect of the life of the sophomore. Candy grams were a very popular source of revenue. They gave the students a chance to send messages to others on holidays and for the sponsor to raise money. The class of '80 also obtained money by the time tested methods of bake sales, sponsoring the informal Christmas dance, and collecting class dues. They also sold Jaguars that were made out of felt for the regional play-off game. These funds will come in handy as they begin to make plans for next year's prom.

The Sophomore class is anxiously awaiting to be raised to the junior status when they will be considered upperclassmen. Having reached this status the class of '80 will be reaching for goals which will lead them on the road to adulthood.

Freshmen: Class of '81

Class Officers

Beginning high school is always a unique and interesting experience for Freshmen. To some it is the beginning of bigger and better things, meeting new people, and sharing new thoughts, ideas, and activities. To others it is a sad ending to a long and happy childhood. It means breaking with the past and starting all over again. It means going down new roads and crossing many different paths. To the rest of the students it is merely an extension of what has already occurred.

This year's class began the one thing that all classes have in common; raising money. They started out by having a bake sale and collecting dues. In the spring, the Frosh held a car wash. This was fun as well as profitable. This money is being accumulated for use in later years.

Becoming involved was easy for the Freshmen as they started on the right road by decorating a hall for pride week, making a float for homecoming and attending pep rallies. The Baby Jag football team had a highly productive year as they went undefeated. This leaves the road open for more success as the class of '81 continues on the path of high school.

Looking forward to the rest of their years in high school, the Freshman class is very optimistic about their future. Even though they must pass a statewide test to obtain their diplomas, the class of '81 is confident that they will all graduate on time.

In Memoriam

Michael Simms

Each day we begin, plan, and perform. Every crossroad that we encounter will contain all three of these stages. The first step contains the learning, developing, and formulating processes. The planning stage is the stage where we use what we learned to make everything we plan go more smoothly. The final and most important is the actual end result, whether it be a sport, test, or creation. We always hope they turn out right, but if they do not we should never be afraid to take a step back. Once we step back we find a detail which we over-looked.

Each new line or phrase we learn helps us to reach our final goal. Each person we meet or activity we participate in, create a new image in our minds. All these experiences help us reach our final CROSSROADS.

Decisions Create CROSSROADS.

High school is a time for making important decisions. Each new decision opens a new door, which has a new set of challenges. Once these doors are opened we must again decide which door to go through. For seniors, these decisions are extremely difficult to make, as well as being very important. These decisions will form the paths and crossroads that the senior will encounter in the future.

As we pass through the doors of time,
We leave behind a part of ourselves.
Yet we look toward the future,
Maturing somewhat . . . and always,
Meeting new CROSSROADS.
